song always accompanying the acting of the famous "Sword Dance," and in addition sang the Japanese national hymn. The latter, he said, had been translated and introduced in various public schools of the United States.

Mrs. Van Casteel rendered most acceptably the selections for piano, the dainty "Butterfly" and "The Value," also accompanying the vocal soloists. Dr. William M. Kemball was heard with great appreciation in his tenor solos, "He Was a Prince" and "Drink To Me Only With Thine Eyes." A story in verse of the civil war time, by Bret Harte, was given by Mrs. Louis F. Holden, while quite opposite in theme and manner were her other selections in Southern old-time dainty dialect, "De Scourion" and "How Old I Is?" Afterward refreshments were served.

The hostesses were Mrs. Hiram Buckingham, Mrs. Henry P. Holden, and Mrs. Austin Thomas. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. William H. Souder, Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Dean, of Scranton, Pa.; Prof. and Mrs. Benjamin Pickman Mann, Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Holden, Mrs. Pearl Goodman, Mrs. Millman, Mrs. Harper, of Cleveland, Ohio; Miss Nellie Friend, Mrs. Van Casteel, Capt. Hiram Buckingham, Mr. Milton B. McIntosh, of California; Dr. M. S.
